Rogers and Astaire Come To Palace for Four Days

"Shall We Dance" Opens Today and Runs Through Tuesday, Other Good Pictures

The dancing team of Fred Astaire and Ginger Rogers will be seen in their latest screen production "Shall We Dance" at the Palace theatre today, Sunday and Monday.

The Gershwin score will be sung by Jessamine Newell and Harriet Hoctor will be seen in a ballet number.

Turn Off the Moon Sunday

Songs of Shall We Dance by George and Ira Gershwin include The Can't Like That Away, I've Got Beginner's Luck and Let's Call the Whole Thing Off.

Supporting the stars are Edward Everett Horton, Eric Blore, Jerome Cowan and William Brisbane. The fuller dancing features in this picture are Harriet Hoctor, Antonio Gades, Dorothy Dare and Peter Hawley.

Turn Off the Moon is a hilarious comedy in which Astaire and Rogers are cast as a young dancing couple who are forced to flee from the police. Astaire is accused of murdering his rival for the affections of Rogers.

Jules Verne's gripping romance Michael Strogoff comes to the screen as The Soldier and the Lady and features Anita Walbrook, Elizabeth Allan, Margot Grahame, Fay Padden, Akim Tamiroff, Eric Plore and a cast of 10,000.

The plot laid in 1870 concerns the perilous journey of Wolfronck the Tsar's courier through territory overrun with Tartar patrols to reach a Russian army in Siberia. Finding the wife of a spy set to intercept him and undergoing tremendous privations only to be captured when almost within sight of his goal and sentenced to be blinded, the Tsar's messenger encounters adventures and romance.

Jack Benny, Nancy Carroll and Gene Raymond head the cast of Transatlantic Merry Go Round with Sydney Howard, Mildred Green, Sid Silvers, Frank Parker, the Boswell Sisters, Sidney Blackmer, Jed Prouty, Patricia Ellis, Ben Alexander and Dan Dailey.

His fiancee's father and Dan plan to steal the plans of the ship.

Dan succeeds in his plan but is forced to jump overboard when he is discovered by the ship's officers. He is picked up by a passing vessel and is reported dead by the ship's officers.

Dan returns to New York and finds that Lucy has left on the ship. Dan borrows a plane and flies to Europe where he has a series of thrilling adventures.

Dan finds Lucy in Europe and the two are married.

Johnny Davis and Harriet Hoctor are featured in Turn Off the Moon.

Chester Conklin, Eddie Foy, Jr., and Charles Lane are featured in Thin Ice.

Paradise Plaza, the side of an Atlantic City boardwalk, features Lew Ayres and Marion Cole on in the subject of his affections.

BRET HARTE'S STORY FILMED

Outcasts of Poker Flat Comes to Marion Screen Sunday and Monday

Bret Harte's famous story The Outcast of Poker Flat will be brought to the Marion screen Sunday and Monday with Preston Foster starred and a supporting cast headed by Jean Muir, Van Heflin, Virginia Weidler and Margaret Irving.

The drama and suspense of the original story perhaps one of the best known of all Harte's tales arises out of the romance of a gambler and a pretty schoolteacher who is also loved by a young minister and the mutual interest of all three in a waif of the Forty-Nine mining camp.

Alice Brady and Guy Kibbee, Betty Furness and Stanley Morner are featured in a gay romantic comedy, Mama Steps Out, which will be shown on the same bill. Kibbee, an American manufacturer, takes his wife and daughter to Europe. His wife, Miss Brady, decides she wants culture and invites a bogus train of artistes to move into their villa. The daughter elopes with an American crooner at the casino and by the time the family is again on an even keel Dr. Pitt's Eye decided her slant on the culture business is a bit cockeyed.

Private Number, co-starring Robert Taylor and Loretta Young and Too Many Wives, featuring Ann Sothern, John Medley and Irene Lambert will return to be shown Tuesday and Wednesday. The turn of Private Number are supported by Patsy Kelly, Basil Rathbone and Marjorie Gateson. The story of the love of a millionaire's wife for his mother's personal maid and of their final overcoming of what at first appears to be insurmountable obstacles, is a well done picture.

Anne Shirley emerges from her highly successful "bobbie soxer" roles to a grown-up part in Too Many Wives. She plays an heiress who runs from her elite home to a college boy who sells into the metropolitan newspaper world as a whipping boy, being bounced time after time by supercilious cranks who storm the editorial rooms. Manley plays the college boy and Lockhart is Miss Shirley's wealthy parent, a stamp collector.

Conrad Nagel, long a silent picture favorite is starred in Navy Spy which will be shown Thursday. Saturday. Eleanor Hunt is his leading lady and Judith Allen and Jack Doyle are in minor roles. The picture gives an insight into the working of government investigators in solving difficult crimes and in the efficiency of the U. S. navy. A George O'Brien western, O'Malley of the Mounted, with Irene Ware and Stanley Fields will be shown on the same bill.

"Three Smart Girls" Opens Week for Showing Sunday and Monday

Three attractive and well worthwhile pictures, Three Smart Girls starring the delightful Deanna Durbin, Everett Horton and Eric Blore, Sunday and Monday, on a double bill with a Fox Picture western story of the Grand Canyon.

Three Smart Girls Deanna is a pleasure to watch as she and her two older sisters Barbara Read and Nan Grey set about breaking up the romance of their father Charles Winninger, Show Boat Captain Will Vodery and the intriguing Binnie Barnes. They learn of their father approaching marriage and seeing all is not everything to return him and their mother they run away to America and set about their work—with results. Miss Durbin has one of the most unusual voices heard on the screen and she is generous with her songs in the picture. She is a family picture with an ingenious infectious quality.

Out of the Lone Prairie, You Are Free, "Pop Whips," My Sake Cuquita and Sam Hall are some of the songs in Song of the Gringo. The story concerns the hard plan of a U. S. deputy who has to assume a bandit gang is pretending to be one of them.

Yellow Cargo, dealing with gold smuggling and starring Conrad Nagel as a government official and Conflict featuring John Wayne and Jean Rogers will be shown Tuesday and Wednesday.

The Thursday through Saturday features will be Notre Dame in the Army Now and Trailing West.

Wallace Reid and Anna Lee are the principals in Notre Dame in the Army Now, a British made picture. Reid threatens to become the screen's toughest tough guy.

Trailing West is a Dick Foran western in which the star sings Moonlight Valley and Drums of Glory. The picture is a melodrama of the west during the civil war period when guerillas were undermining the government and spies were on the watch to catch them.

Addison Richards plays the villain and Portia Stone, daughter of Fred Stone is the heroine. Both Foran and Miss Stone are cast as secret service operatives working independently in the same field to break up a band of guerilla bandits and robbers of U. S. gold shipments, neither knowing the other's operations.

With its many dialects Chinese is accounted to be the most widely spoken language in the world.

NOVEL DANCE ON TYPEWRITER KEYBOARD

RUBY KEELER IN OHIO BILL

Wednesday, Thursday and Friday there will be a double bill sponsored by the Good Cheer circle of the King's Daughters. The picture will be Her Husband's Secretary featuring Jean Muir and Warren Hull and Midnight Court with Ann Dvorak and John Litel are featured.

Supporting Miss Keeler and Dixon are such well known players as Carol Hughes, Winifred Shaw, Allen Jenkins, Louise Fazenda, Addison Richards, F. F. Coe and a bevy of beautiful girls.

The story, taken from a popular magazine yarn by Richard Macaulay, concerns the efforts of an aspiring actress and a hoofer to break into Broadway.

HARDING MIXED CHORUS TO SING

Pupils To Take Part in Trinity Baptist Church Sunday Night

The Harding High school mixed chorus will sing Sunday night at 7:30 at the Trinity Baptist church under the direction of Miss Doris Dupree.

The chorus is composed of 65 sophomores, juniors and seniors.

To gain membership in the group is required the attainment of a degree of musical ability and participation in chorus work of quality. Tryouts are held beginning each fall. Those who do satisfactory work at the tryouts and perform other duties as directed are granted credits toward graduation.

At the request of the Rotary club and the Harding faculty, the Harding mixed chorus originated.

For the Sunday night program will include two little Brahms lullabies. The first, "Sleep Now, O Blessed Child," is from the Sacred Folksongs, Op. 44, and the second, "O Magnum Mysterium," by Vittoria, tells the story of the Nativity and will be sung in Latin.

In connection with the program the choir conducted the observance of Mother's day in the church.

Other selections on the program will be "The Old Year Is Ending," "Let Calm Night Softly Weave Her Mantle," and "Incline Thine Ear," by Elmore Nevelle.

Rev. Lawrence A. Wood, pastor, will speak on "Sinks and Giants."

Steps To Power

A SERMONETTE

By REV. LAWRENCE A. WOOD
Pastor the Trinity Baptist Church

Acts 1:8 "You shall receive power after that the Holy Spirit is come upon you."

A BUSINESS man of [illegible] spent my first term with the cold intellectual principles of training on the service line laid down by Jesus. Strength was in a little line I saw and loved him personally. In like manner the man who meet the conditions listed in the Bible receives supernatural power. Jesus Christ lives today as full as when he was on earth. He has power in respect to points.

This is Pentecost Sunday and return to that upper room which Jesus and just before he returned to heaven. He said, "You will receive power when the Holy Spirit is come upon you." He follows this with the only required for such power. Within one hundred years they changed the thinking of the entire world. Such power is [illegible] available for those who will take the [illegible] that [illegible].

First, [illegible] change your thinking about [illegible] about Jesus Christ about [illegible].

Second, [illegible] all sin [illegible] by the help of God this can be done.

Third, will Christ [illegible] your substitute. Some [illegible] someone to [illegible] accept him as your substitute Savior and you will experience [illegible] from sin.

Fourth, [illegible] the command of your life to Christ. He said, "If any man will come after me let him [illegible] himself, take up his cross and follow me." He will [illegible] those who are openly committed to him.

Fifth, [illegible] everything. This is [illegible] surrender of your life to him. It means complete [illegible]. This will [illegible] from the [illegible].

Sixth, [illegible] for the [illegible] empowering [illegible] of the Holy Spirit. Search [illegible] that he Holy Spirit [illegible] your life with power. [illegible] said Mark 11:24, "What things soever you [illegible] when you pray, believe that ye [illegible] them and you shall have them."

This is power for victory over [illegible] for peace of mind and for assurance of God's guidance. Sir Wilfred Grenfell of the Labrador coast has written: "Christ means to me a living personality today who moves about in this world and who gives us strength and power as we endure by seeing Him who is invisible only to our fallible and finite human eyes."

C. F. Andrews in his book "What Christ Means To Me" has said: "Christ has been the living Christ to me. I do not merely picture Him to myself as I see Him in the Gospel story, or only follow with vivid imagination His footsteps by the shores of Galilee. For I have known the secret of His presence here and now as a daily reality.

"Christ's presence with us today is in the person of the Holy Spirit. He come to every one who believes in Christ but he comes with power in those who have yielded their live entirely to God. God long to dwell fully in the life of every believer and his presence assures power to meet every condition that may arise in life. This power will be your when you have taken the [illegible] definite step. Pentecost Sunday is the very best time for you to give your life entirely to God.

FELLER'S GRADUATION STIRS IOWA TOWN

Microphones and News Reel Cameras Make Party Memorable for Van Meter

BY J. T. SKEFFINGTON
By The Associated Press

VAN METER, Ia. May 15 Van Meter settled back to a more normal pace today after sending its hero back to the major league scene with a high school diploma.

Wherever the celebrants clustered however the main topic of conversation still concerned Bob Feller's graduation party.

Bob left shortly after the festivities for Chicago where he will rejoin the Cleveland team at training camp after a week's rest. Out of action since April 21 Bob said he hoped to work again for the Yankees in New York next week end.

There were 19 other seniors in the graduating class in Lynight but the 18 year old strikeout artist was the star of the show for some 700 persons who packed the school auditorium for graduation exercises they probably will never forget.

National radio hookups don't happen often to towns whose population barely tops the 1000 mark in Van Meter apparently realized this and made the most of the occasion.

Newsreel cameramen came to film the graduation but Supt. O. E. Lester ruled that they couldn't operate during the exercises. He agreed however to have the most significant phases reenacted for the benefit of the cameramen. Bob presented the school a handsome trophy case. Then Supt. Lester unveiled a gold tone picture of Bob a present to the school by the graduating class.
